Presidential Forum on Service

Today's event commemorates the 20th anniversary of the vision of a thousand "Points of Light" invoked by President George H. W. Bush in 1989.

The 2009 Presidential Forum on Service honors our 41st President and celebrates the enormous advances of the service movement that started under his leadership and has been sustained through the leadership of Presidents William J. Clinton and George W. Bush.

The service movement continues to gain momentum under President Barack Obama with the passage of the Edward M. Kennedy Serve America Act and the United We Serve initiative.

The event also celebrates more than 4,500 Daily Point of Light Award winners.

INSTITUTE

About Points of Light Institute

Points of Light Institute inspires, equips and mobilizes people to take action that changes the world. The Institute has a global focus to redefine volunteerism and civic engagement for the 21st century, putting people at the center of community problem solving. We operate three dynamic business units that share our mission: HandsOn Network, MissionFish and the Civic Incubator. We are organized to help people act upon their power to make a difference.

About Daily of Point of Light Awards

The Daily Point of Light Award, created by President George H. W. Bush in 1989, honors individuals and volunteer groups around the country who are helping to meet critical needs in their communities and creating change every day and has a bi-partisan presidential legacy over the past two decades. Points of Light Institute selects the awardees through a nominations process that is open to the general public.
